Re: Jivago Trademark
Our Docket No. 458017.16389

Dear Mr. Gera:

My firm represents Jivago, Inc. ("Jivago") of Beverly Hills, California in connection with its intellectual property matters, including trademarks. Jivago is the owner of the trademark JIVAGO for use in connection with cosmetics, namely men's and women's perfume. Jivago has registered its trademarks in the United States and throughout the world.

Jivago has learned that Perfume Network, Inc. has imported and offered for sale 30,528 bottles of perfume bearing counterfeit JIVAGO trademarks. These products were impounded and seized by the U.S. Customs and Border Protection Service as they were entering the United States. The items that your firm imported are unauthorized counterfeits and were made without our client's consent. Jivago has not agreed to permit you to sell such products or otherwise use its trademark. Your importation and sale of these counterfeit products constitutes trademark infringement and has caused substantial damage to Jivago. See 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114(1), 1125(a)(1)(A), 1124; and 19 U.S.C. § 1526(a). Mr. Gera is personally responsible for the damages caused to Jivago, because of his capacity as a central figure in the corporation and who authorized and approved the acts found to be an infringement. See, Polo Fashions, Inc. v. Craftex, Inc., 816 F.2d 145.

We hereby demand, on behalf of our client, that Perfume Network and Mr. Gera immediately take the following steps to remedy this matter: (1) agree to cease and desist from any future infringements of the JIVAGO mark and any other trademark owned by Jivago, (2) stipulate to the entry of a permanent injunction by the United States District Court for the Central District of California prohibiting future infringements; (3) provide to my firm the names, addresses, telephone numbers and any other relevant information relating to all persons and parties involved in the scheme to manufacture, import and distribute counterfeit JIVAGO products; (4) provide full, complete and unfettered cooperation to Jivago in its investigation of this matter (including, but not limited to, providing documents and testimony deemed necessary by Jivago); (5) account to Jivago for the profits that Perfume Network has received as a result of its infringement, and (6) reimburse our client for its legal fees and costs incurred in connection with this matter, in an amount to be determined.

Please have an appropriate representative of Perfume Network contact me within the next five (5) days to confirm your company's intention to comply with our client's demands. It is our hope that we will be able to resolve this matter quickly. If, however, you are not willing to respect our client's rights, then Jivago is prepared to take whatever steps are necessary to enforce its trademark and protect its reputation and goodwill. Such steps could include, for example, a lawsuit in Federal District Court for trademark infringement, unfair competition and violations of the Lanham Act, without further notice to you. Jivago would seek all remedies available to it in such a lawsuit, including attorneys fees, punitive and treble damages.

I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

KLEINBERG & LERNER, LLP

Michael Hurey
